Become a Volunteer Emergency Responder with San Juan Island Fire and Rescue

San Juan Island Fire and Rescue (SJIF&R) is seeking volunteers to join our comprehensive emergency services agency, in a number of roles to serve our islands' communities.

Become part of an emergency services organization with a culture of teamwork and camaraderie, focused on our communities' needs. We are seeking volunteers to participate in upcoming training academies.

Firefighting training will begin in Mid-January 2022. Receive professional training in a wide-range of skills to protect our islands' families, friends and neighbors. Master emergency services skills include: Firefighting; Emergency Medical Technician (EMT); Marine Response and Technical Rescue.

- We are accepting applications now through November 22, 2021.
- Applications can be picked-up in person at the office in Fire Station 31, 1011 Mullis Street in Friday Harbor.
- Questions? Want to know more? Come visit us or you can call (360) 378-5334.

SJIF&R is also seeking volunteers interested in support positions. We have opportunities for anyone committed to serving our islanders. Interested? Come by and visit us and meet our team.
